We, the members of the Board of Trustees of River Road Unitarian Universalist Congregation for the 2017-2018 Congregational year, understanding that we work within the approved policies of the Board and the Congregation, covenant with each other to:

1. Be in service to the Congregation and its mission through performing our duties to the best of our abilities;

2. Prioritize our commitment to the Congregational community so that Board leadership is our primary focus;

3. Represent what is best for the Congregational community as a whole, regardless of personal inclinations or loyalties;

4. Accept responsibility for informed decisions;

5. Act with integrity and be open about possible conflicts of interest;

6. Actively and respectfully listen to others, assuming they bring their best intentions to every discussion;

7. Respect others' commitments by
    - Being on time and prepared for each meeting,
    - Committing only to tasks we feel we can comfortably complete, and
    - Responding to Board communications in a timely manner;

8. Support Board decisions once they have been made, showing solidarity by presenting a unified message from the Board; and

9. Strive to create spiritual, purposeful community as a covenanted group, that we might reflect our hopes and goals for River Road Unitarian Universalist Congregation.
